Description for Product Change Notification

As part of an ongoing improvement process, a design change and material change is being made to the items listed. The change to the knurl design of the SF series, which was planned for 2019, can now be finalized after further technical adjustments.

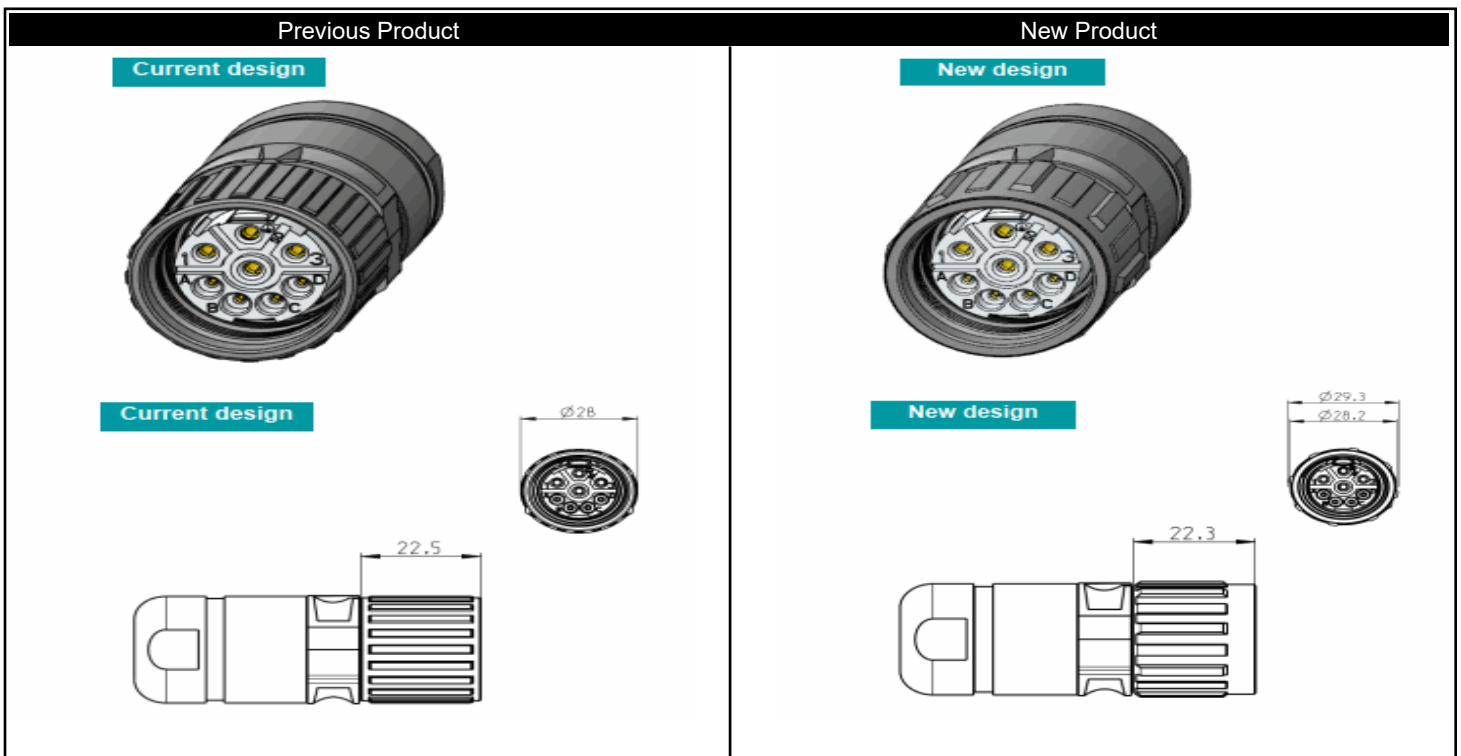

To improve the bite, the knurl design was adapted using more ridges. Furthermore, the knurl material is changing from brass (turning process) to die-cast zinc (out-of-tool production process). This will improve supply capability and help to clear out existing backlog. Due to the difficult delivery situation, this change needs to be completed in less than 6 months.
