

End of Life Notification of Bluetooth ModuleTo Customers

First of all, we would like to express our appreciation for your being a loyal customer to KAGA FEI.

The products, which are being used for your products, became old supporting Bluetooth version 4.2 or older and are also not expected sufficient demand to continue the production. In this situation, KAGA FEI decided the discontinuation of the production of the products listed below. We would like to express our appreciation for your understanding and would like your last order according to the schedule below. Since we have products supporting Bluetooth version 5.0 or later, we would appreciate if you would consider them as alternatives.
