

Product Discontinuation Notice

3M™ Mini D Ribbon (MDR) Metal Junction Shell for Flat Cable – 20-Position

Issue Number: 753
Date: March 8, 2010

Product Discontinuance

Due to no demand and tooling obsolescence, 3M is discontinuing the manufacture of the 20-position version only of its MDR Metal Junction Shell for Flat Cable. Items in this series of 26 position or greater size will remain available.

The only part number affected by this notice is:

3M PN	3M Stock Number
10320-1230-00	80-6106-5527-8

There is no stock available for this item and further production is not possible. 3M will be unable to support a last time buy for this product.

There have been no sales of this part in the last five years.

Replacement Parts (if applicable)

There is not a direct replacement for this item.

There are numerous available backshell kits for 20-position MDR wiremount connectors that will have different form factors, but are functionally similar. All 20-position MDR backshell parts have the part number format:

10320-XXXX

Please review the available MDR backshell options on our website, www.3mconnector.com, to determine suitability for use in your application.
