Description of Changes
Change in FEP LM Jacket Material

Reason for Changes:
Part status change. This notification is to inform you of a change in FEP resin used in FEP-LM jacket material. TE Connectivity was notified by its material vendor of obsoleting the FEP grade that is used in FEP-LM jacket material. TE Technical Team has completed the validation of an alternate FEP material from same vendor with similar chemical structure and properties. The results demonstrate no change to the fit, form and function of finished parts. Upon your request, TE will provide FAI on the first production order using the alternate material.
