Dear < Customer FSE Last Name>,

Re: Announcing the Obsolescence of EVN Series Limit Switches

As a part of product line rationalization efforts, Honeywell Sensing and Control's EVN Series limit switches will be made obsolete effective May 10, 2013. The following four models remain active: EVN2000A, EVN2000B, EVN2000C, and EVN2000D, and last time buys will be offered for these products for existing customers. Last time buys for EVN series products must be received by April 30, 2013 for shipment by May 10, 2013.

Affected current listings for last time buy:

EVN2000A	EVN2000B	EVN2000C	EVN2000D
EVN2000A-RS	EVN2000B-RS	EVN2000C-RS	EVN2000D-RS

For questions, please contact one of the members of the Limit Switches product marketing team.
