Re: Obsolescence of ALC & ALV Series

Dear Valued Customer / Partner,

The LED lighting market has undergone rapid changes in the last few years, particularly with the introduction of dimmable and non isolated LED drivers.

TDK-Lambda has made the difficult decision to focus on our core markets and announce an End of Life on all ALC & ALV models.

We are offering a last time purchase opportunity for these products until September 30th, 2013. Please understand that these orders would be non-cancelable and non-returnable.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'DNorton', with a stylized flourish at the end.
