Description for Product Discontinuation

Due to ongoing product improvements, Phoenix Contact has developed and added many new and optimized HEAVYCON protective covers to the product portfolio. The previous protective covers in HEAVYCON series B06, B10, B16, B24, D15, and D25 are therefore being discontinued. The improved and optimized versions will replace each discontinued item.

The new HEAVYCON protective covers differ from the previous products in terms of their shape and material. The technical properties of the new protective covers are either the same or better than the previous versions. The new material is Polycarbonate, is UV resistant (UL 746 C f1 listed), has a UL 94 V0 flammability rating, and provides an IP66 seal.
